Verse

E G#m
If you've got the time, maybe we can meet
A G#m
In a house I know on Chapel Street
A G#m
We can talk about but not repeat
F#m F#m
The things from yesterday

Verse

E G#m
The chain is made of silver thread
A G#m
And I wear it deep inside my head
A G#m
There's no one else I'd want to be instead
F#m F#m - E
I've been lucky all my life

Verse

E G#m
Five Across, The Linx are here
A G#m
And young Blues crept into my ear
A G#m
But every time your face appeared
F#m F#m
The clouds were washed away

Verse

E G#m
The days moved fast and so did we
A G#m
Until the space between was wide and deep
A G#m
I knew my way was dark and steep
F#m F#m - E
Like everyone before

Refrein

When I see you all it makes me smiles
And heaven was a place in time
I may change my mind a million times
but I will never change my heart

Refrein

When I see you all it makes me smiles
And heaven was a place in time
I may change my mind a million times
but I will never change my heart

Verse

So let me hear you favorite song
The one you'd sing when things went wrong
We owned the world but not for long
We had to pass it on.

Verse

If you've got the time, maybe we can meet
At a house I know on Chapel Street
You know, your smile is just as sweet
As It was so long ago.

Refrein

When I see you all it makes me smiles
And heaven was a place in time
I may change my mind a million times
but I will never I could never change my heart
