

Hudson valley Ghost

George Kooymans – Frank Carillo

Verse

Am C
It wasn't the gold that was hid' in the ground
G Am
Or the fine looking women that worked in the town
Am C
A cold-hearted feeling it hung in the air
G Am
It seemed to hit everyone, but nobody cared

Am C
Years had gone by and than one bright day
G Am
He strolled into town like he'd never been away
Am C
He said: "Do unto others, before they can do
G Am
Those dirty deeds they're gonna do to you."

Bridge

G G G G
I-I-I-I don't know why we're talking
G G G
I don't know why you are here
Am D G G
With the moon in our eyes you've been walking
Am D G G
And the wind keeps my words from your ears, oh yeah. G

Instrumentaal

Am Am G G
Am Am G G

Verse

Am C
He told a story, sent shivers trough the room
G Am
All of the good things are gone far too soon
Am C
Then he picked up the bag, his jacket and hat
G Am
He left with a smile and disappeared just like that.

Bridge

G G G G
I-I-I-I don't know why we're talking
G G G G
I don't know why you are here
Am D G G
With the moon in our eyes you've been walking
Am D G G
And the wind keeps my words from your ears, oh yeah. G
