

This Wheel's on Fire

Julie Driscoll 1968, Brian Auger, Bob Dylan e.v.a

Am-Am/b-Am/a Am-Am/g-Am/e

[Verse]

Am
If your memory serves you well
Bdim7
We were goin' to meet again and wait
E
So I'm go in to unpack all my things
F Dm Am
And sit before it gets too late
C Am
No man alive will come to you
C Am
With another tale to tell
C Am
But you know that we shall meet again
F Dm Am
If your memory serves you well

[refrain]

Dm F C G G7
This wheel's on fire, rolling down the road
C G F C
Best notify my next of kin
F G A
This wheel shall explode

[Verse]

Am
If your memory serves you well
Bdim7
I was goin' to confiscate your lace
And wrap it up in a sailor's knot
F Dm Am
And hide it in your case
C Am
If I knew for sure that it was yours
C Am
But it was oh so hard to tell
C Am
But you knew that we would meet again
F Dm Am
If your memory serves you well

[refrain]

This wheel's on fire, rolling down the road
Best notify my next of kin
          F        G        A
This wheel shall explode

[Verse]

          Am
If your memory serves you well
          Bdim7
You'll remember you're the one
That called on me to call on them
          F                                    Dm        Am
To get you your favors done

And after every plan had failed
And there was nothing more to tell
          C                                    Am
You knew that we would meet again
          F        Dm                    Am
If your memory served you well

[refrain]

This wheel's on fire, rolling down the road
Best notify my next of kin
          F        G        A
This wheel shall explode
