Intro:

G | D? | Em | C | Am | G | C | D

 G D? Em C
I know there's a man who can sell time
 Am G C D
I can take it away and say that it's mine

 A E D A
He smiles from a distance and lives in a tree
Am Em G6 D
Holding out a welcome hand, a fist for you and me

D | G | D | G

 G D? Em C
Money is chocolate, locked in a silver cloud
Am G C D
Everybody knows but no one is around

 A E D A
There's no tomorrow, only today
Am Em G6 D
When it rains, it rains lemonade

D | G | D | G

 D G
So come with me and meet the man
 F C D
Whose job it is, is selling all this time
 Bb F Bb C D
Before he spreads his wings and starts to flying 'round the sky

 G D? Em C
People are shadows, trapped in a golden well
 Am G C D
And only children's lifes can break this spell

 A E D A
We live in a land where the clouds go on trees
Am Em G6 D
Birds sound just like a clean summer breeze

D | G | D | G

G D? Em C
I know that this man who does sell time
Am G C D
Is someone whose life lives in my mind
A E D A
It's all sad to think that there is such a man
Am Em G6 D
When you're lonely you can join me in his land

D G
So come with me and meet the man
F C D
Whose job it is, is selling all this time
Bb F Bb C D
Before he spreads his wings and starts to flying 'round the sky
